

Mr. BERMAN. I am pleased to yield again to the sponsor of this bill an additional minute.

Mr. INSLEE. Mr. Speaker, I do also want to express my great respect for the previous speaker, Representative CANNON. He is a fellow of such great heart and cheerful countenance, it has been a pleasure to serve with him. He and I now belong or shortly will belong to an elite group. He will be joining the Former Members of Congress. I am also a member of the Former Members of Congress.

I just want to relate to him that many of us who are not serving at one time, it is a respectful and honorable position to be in. I want his family to know how much we respect his service. We know he is going to go on to do great things for his community and his family.

Congressman, I would like to tell you how much we respect you. Hope you come by and say hello on occasion. Congratulations.

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I just want to take a moment, the irony of both Mr. SMITH and Mr. CANNON being on the floor at the same time. For so many years, I was on Ethics Committee with Mr. SMITH as chairman during a big part of that time, on the Immigration Committee with Mr. SMITH being chairman for a part of that time, and on Intellectual Property, when Mr. SMITH was chairman for a serious part of that time.

I hate to say this in front of the ranking member of the Judiciary Committee, but with the gentleman from Utah, with whom I worked so closely on so many different aspects of the immigration issue, I will sorely miss you.

We didn't agree as much on all the intellectual property issues as we did on the immigration issues. But the other side of the coin is, I didn't agree with the ranking member of Judiciary on the immigration issues as much as I did on the intellectual property issues.

But in both cases it has really been a delight to work with both of you, and particularly you, Mr. CANNON, because at least for now you won't be back here next year. I will miss both your person and your work on these issues, and we shall prevail.

Mr. CANNON. Would the gentleman yield?

Mr. BERMAN. I do.

Mr. CANNON. This is an amazing, actually, pass. Mr. INSLEE and I, of course, have worked on the Natural Resources Committee together and differed sharply on many issues, but never unpleasantly.

This is an amazing pass where people of such divergent views are together on the same issue. It's a nice send-off. I appreciate your kind comments and those of the gentlelady from California and the gentleman from Washington and the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, in closing, I just want to say that we have before us legislation that is supported by the DMA association, the Digital Media Association and the Sound Exchange, the collection agency, as well as their component memberships, including the labels, the performers, the musicians, the backup singers, National Public Radio, the small webcasters. I should report, based on the conversations and an amendment that extends till February 15 the deadline, this bill does not have the opposition of the National Association of Broadcasters.

I urge the passage of H.R. 7084 and yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. BERMAN) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 7084, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 18, 2007, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. GARRETT) is recognized for 5 minutes.

(Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.)

HISTORIC MOMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from North Carolina (Ms. FOXX) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, you know, people often come up and say we are at an historic moment. Every moment is a part of history because at some time what we are doing is going to be recorded but we really are at another defining moment in American history here this week and this weekend.

And the American people need to know that House Republicans are fighting for the right values and for what 99 percent of Americans have been telling us for the past week. I am also happy to report that most House Republicans agreed with their constituents even before they began hearing from their constituents, and that's a good thing for the American people to know because that means our resolve is even stronger than it would have been if some of our Members had been of a different mind but changed their mind once they started hearing from their constituents.

House Republicans are fighting to ensure that the rescue bill, the economic rescue bill doesn't give a blank check to Wall Street at the expense of taxpayers on Main Street. People have been calling me all day today. I had a call just before I came on the floor asking me are we all right. I am here to reassure the American people that from our side of the aisle we are all right. We are doing fine, and we are standing strong. And I think it is very important that we say that.

But I think also we need to say what some of the specific things we are fighting for and we are fighting against. We are fighting to make sure that we don't slide into socialism in this country. And we are fighting against the special interests, the pork barrel and the very groups that helped get us into the situation that we are in now. I want to say that we are working hard to get out of any bill that is presented here that has pork barrel provisions added by the Democrats, that would reward the people who support them and give them all their money.

Let me talk about three of those groups. Number one, the trial lawyers. Believe it or not, the Democrats have figured out a way to put into this economic recovery bill a great gift to the trial lawyers, and that is something that is called around here a cram down provision.

It would allow people who don't think their mortgage rate is fair to go to a bankruptcy judge and ask that bankruptcy judge to change the conditions of their mortgage. That is an abomination. But what it would do is give a lot of work to trial lawyers. We have said there is a marker here, we will not vote for any economic recovery plan that is going to do that because it would undermine the effectiveness of any economic recovery effort by making it even harder to value these securities.

There is another gift in the draft presented by the Democrats to big labor. This gives Washington's powerful big labor bosses a big handout by having them have "say on pay" or proxy access provisions that the Democrats have added to this.

And then a group that people have asked me about ACORN. There is a big gift in here to that group. It includes a giveaway that would force taxpayers to bankroll a slush fund to a discredited ally of the Democratic Party. ACORN's fraudulent voter registration activities on behalf of Democratic candidates are well known.

This bill that the Democrats have presented would return any profits made in the long term from the economic rescue package partly back to ACORN. In fact, the first part of it would go to ACORN for their often-illegal help in helping Democrats get elected.

I have, Mr. Speaker, a long list of their most recent scandals and unlawful activities. Seven ACORN workers
